Further terms for use of Church:

The structure of the church, from windows to pews, must remain intact and the church left in its original condition, ready for the next service. Under special circumstances, an event may take place earlier than July or later than Labor Day, with the approval of the Trustees, in which case any extra expenses involved in opening and closing the church outside the summer season will be borne by the user. The regular fees, due before the date of the contemplated service at St. Philip's, are as follows:

Private Baptisms and Memorials	$400
Baptisms incorporated into regular Sunday services	$200

By signing this application, I agree to the terms of Church use.
